Nike Air Jordan IVs in military blue

"These are my favorite Jordans. I love the design and fit, and the military blue-and-gray goes perfectly with a pair of dungarees. I also like the fact that the shoe looks small even on a guy wearing a size 12—like me."

Mathieu Mategot Osaka armchair

"I don't buy the stereotype that men just want to fill their homes with black leather sofas and neon beer signs. As someone who wants his home to match his personal style, I love this armchair—it immediately gives a room a more sculptural feel, elevating the look of the entire space."

Ian Velardi denim safari jacket

"My wardrobe will have to revolve around this denim jacket this spring. It's just one of those instantly cool items that give the swagger and confidence that I sometimes lack—the kind of thing Ryan Gosling or Paul Newman in his prime would wear."

Technobohehian printed scarf

Dubreuil: "A lot of people don't know that in addition to acting, John Malkovich designs a line called Technobohehian."

Vukmirovic: "They're these amazingly soft scarves in beautifully colored prints—they're some of our store's best-selling items."

Slowear jacket

"What I like about this sport coat is that it's unstructured, washed, and easy to wear. It's amazing how much more dressed-up you look just by throwing one on—you get the benefit of looking pulled-together and feeling comfortable."

$700, www.slowear.com

Neighborhood camo hamper

"Finding a dope hamper that fits my taste has been a challenge, but the Japanese brand Neighborhood made this super-high-quality one that I love. It's got this industrial feel that works in a minimalist loft or even a dorm room. Plus, the camo print makes it unique and fun."
